New York, NY, June 19, 2026 — Author Becky A. Crowe presents A-Z From God to Thee: A New Christian's Guide to the Way, an accessible and encouraging resource designed to help new believers establish a strong foundation in the Christian faith. Through a simple yet engaging format, the book introduces essential biblical concepts while guiding readers toward a deeper understanding of God's Word and their relationship with Jesus Christ.

In A-Z From God to Thee, Crowe uses each letter of the alphabet to highlight a key biblical principle that is important for spiritual growth and discipleship. Every concept is supported by three Scripture references that provide clarity and biblical context, allowing readers to explore foundational teachings directly from the Bible. The structure creates an easy to follow learning experience that helps new Christians navigate important aspects of their faith with confidence and understanding.

The inspiration behind the book comes from a desire to support individuals who are beginning their walk with Christ and may feel overwhelmed by the vastness of Scripture. Crowe recognized the need for a resource that presents biblical truths in a clear and approachable manner while encouraging readers to engage personally with God's Word. Her goal is to provide practical guidance that helps believers grow in faith from the earliest stages of their spiritual journey.

Its faith centered approach offers encouragement for those seeking direction and spiritual maturity.

The book is intended for new Christians, individuals exploring the Christian faith, church members participating in discipleship programs, and anyone seeking a straightforward introduction to biblical teachings. Pastors, ministry leaders, and mentors may also find it a valuable resource for guiding others through the early stages of faith development.
